Final Note of the Second Committee

In January last the change of the designation of "Govt. oculist" to "Ophthalmic Surgeon and Superintendent of Minto Ophthalmic Hospital" was suggested by the officiating Senior Surgeon at the instance of Doctor Ramanamany Iyengar. The consideration of the proposal was deferred until the new Ophthalmic Hospital settled down into thorough working order; and in the meanwhile, the permanent Senior Surgeon was also consulted in the matter and he said he saw no objection to the proposed change.

2. On further consideration, it was deemed sufficient to adopt the designation "Superintendent of the Minto Ophthalmic Hospital," following the nomenclature prevailing in British India. The designation is comprehensive enough to suggest the duties of the oculist, and indicate the name of the Viceroy after whom the institution itself is named.
